NNIT and DLG extend and expand collaboration

Copenhagen, April 01, 2020 – NNIT, a leading provider of IT services and consultancy has signed a five-year extension and expansion agreement with DLG, one of Europe’s largest agribusiness companies.

According to the new agreement, NNIT will for the next five years support DLG’s transformation towards a more cloud-based IT-infrastructure and group-wide services. By utilizing NNIT’s Hybrid Cloud-solution DLG will migrate their IT-infrastructure into a Private Cloud-environment, which supports a high degree of flexibility and security.

Commenting on the agreement, CIO at DLG Torben Spaabæk says:

“We are transforming our business and are pleased to achieve a stronger IT-infrastructure with the agreement with NNIT. By consolidating our current IT-infrastructure in Denmark over to NNIT’s Private Cloud-solution, we will achieve the desired degree of flexibility while increasing the security, flexibility and stability in our operations.”

Commenting on the agreement, Senior Vice President at NNIT Jacob Hahn Michelsen says:

“We are proud to extend our collaboration with DLG, where our advanced and proven Hybrid Cloud-solution will be the foundation in a more flexible IT-infrastructure.”

Hybrid Cloud is part of NNIT’s ‘Winning Solutions’ and adjusted strategy to increase value creation for customers undergoing digital transformation.

The estimated total value of the new agreement is a minor double-digit million amount (DKK). NNIT and DLG have been collaborating since 2015.
